In this workshop you will learn about the three social and coping styles within the 9 Types. We will explore these three styles resulting in a better understanding of yourself and those around you.

Join us and gain these benefits in this interactive workshop:

- Learn how your own style preferences might get in your way
- Replace judgment of styles different than yours with understanding and appreciation
- Adjust and be more flexible in your approach and defuse potential conflicts

Bottom line? Deeper, richer, more harmonious relationships!
